

"WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME CUT?
WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME LEAVE OUT?"

BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

The Name Game

230 economists penned a letter saying the Democrats "Inflation Reduction Act" would, well, not reduce inflation:

"...[the] inaptly named 'Inflation Reduction Act of 2022' would do nothing of the sort and instead would perpetuate the same fiscal policy errors..."

Apparently naming a bill something does not make it so.

Perhaps that's why the "American Rescue Plan" sparked the worst inflation crisis in forty years, wasted billions of taxpayer dollars, and drove the country into recession – rather than, you know, rescuing America.

Maybe Democrats should stop trying to name their way out of a crisis – particularly when their new Inflation Act scheme will spend $745 billion and add $146 billion in debt to make the "Rescue Plan" inflation crisis that much worse.

Stay tuned for more.

Source: Over 230 economists warn Manchin's spending bill will perpetuate inflation, Fox Business, 8/4/22

Biden's Trail of American Rescue Plan \(ARP\) Waste, House Budget Committee Republicans
FACT SHEET: The Inflation Act Adds Billions of Immediate Debt while Attacking America's Families, Businesses, & Finances to Serve the Democrats' Liberal Policy Agenda, House Budget Committee Republicans, 8/10/22